The Labor and Working Class History Association's Pandemic Book Talks Present:

Migrant Citizenship: Race, Rights, and Reform in the U.S. Farm Labor Camp Program

by Verónica Martínez-Matsuda

In Migrant Citizenship, Verónica Martínez-Matsuda examines the history of the FSA's Migratory Labor Camp Program and its role in the lives of diverse farmworker families across the US. Martínez-Matsuda argues these camps functioned as more than just labor centers aimed at improving agribusiness efficiency. Instead, they represented a profound "experiment in democracy" seeking to secure migrant farmworkers' full political and social participation in the US.
